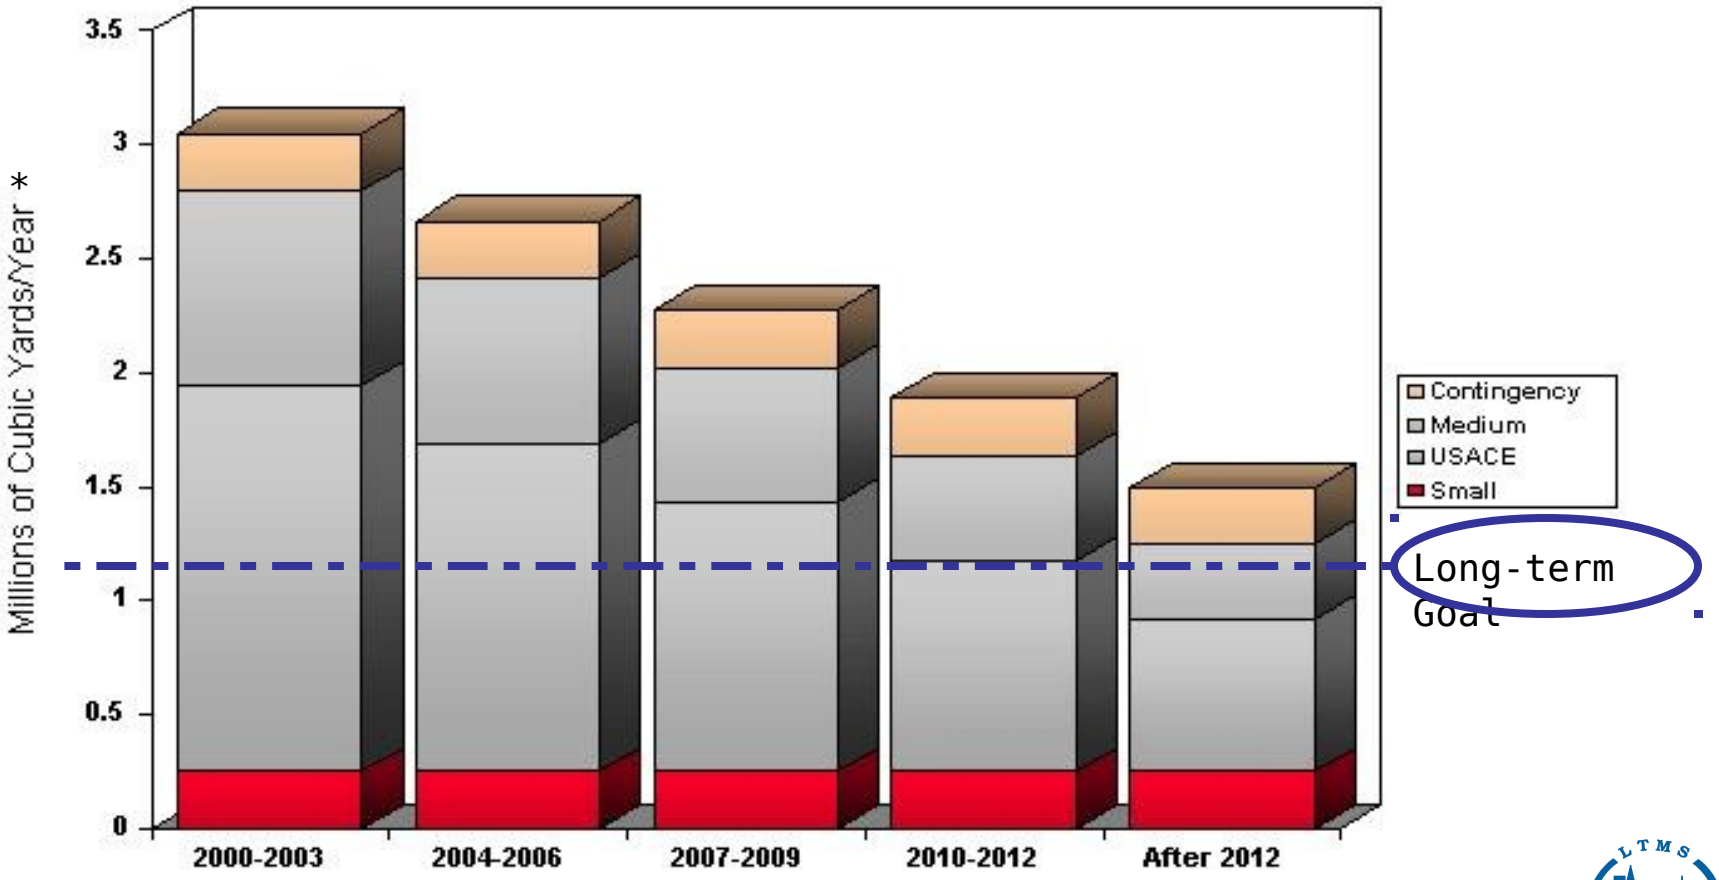
DMMO ANNUAL REVIEW (2004)

May 25, 2005

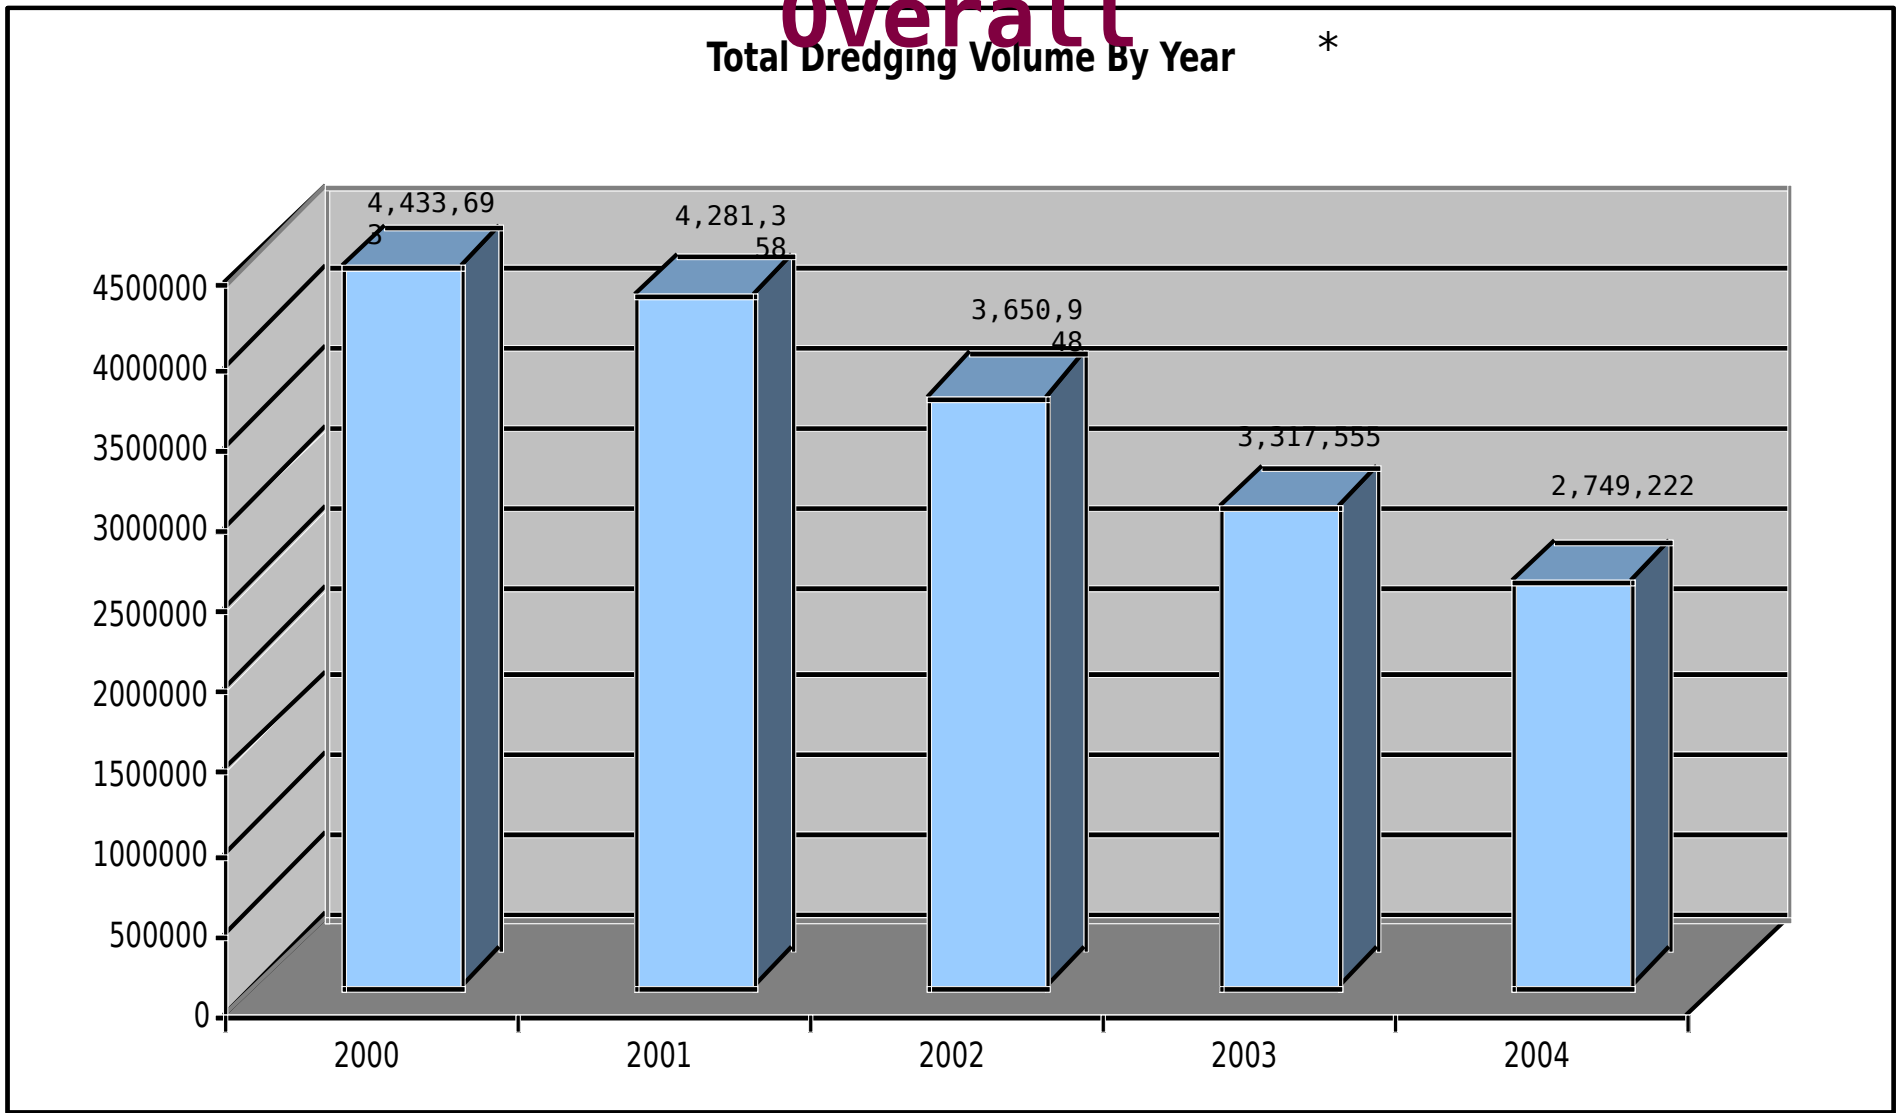
Transition to the LTMS "40/40/20 Plan" Began in 2001

In-Bay Disposal Transition Targets



* In-Situ volume

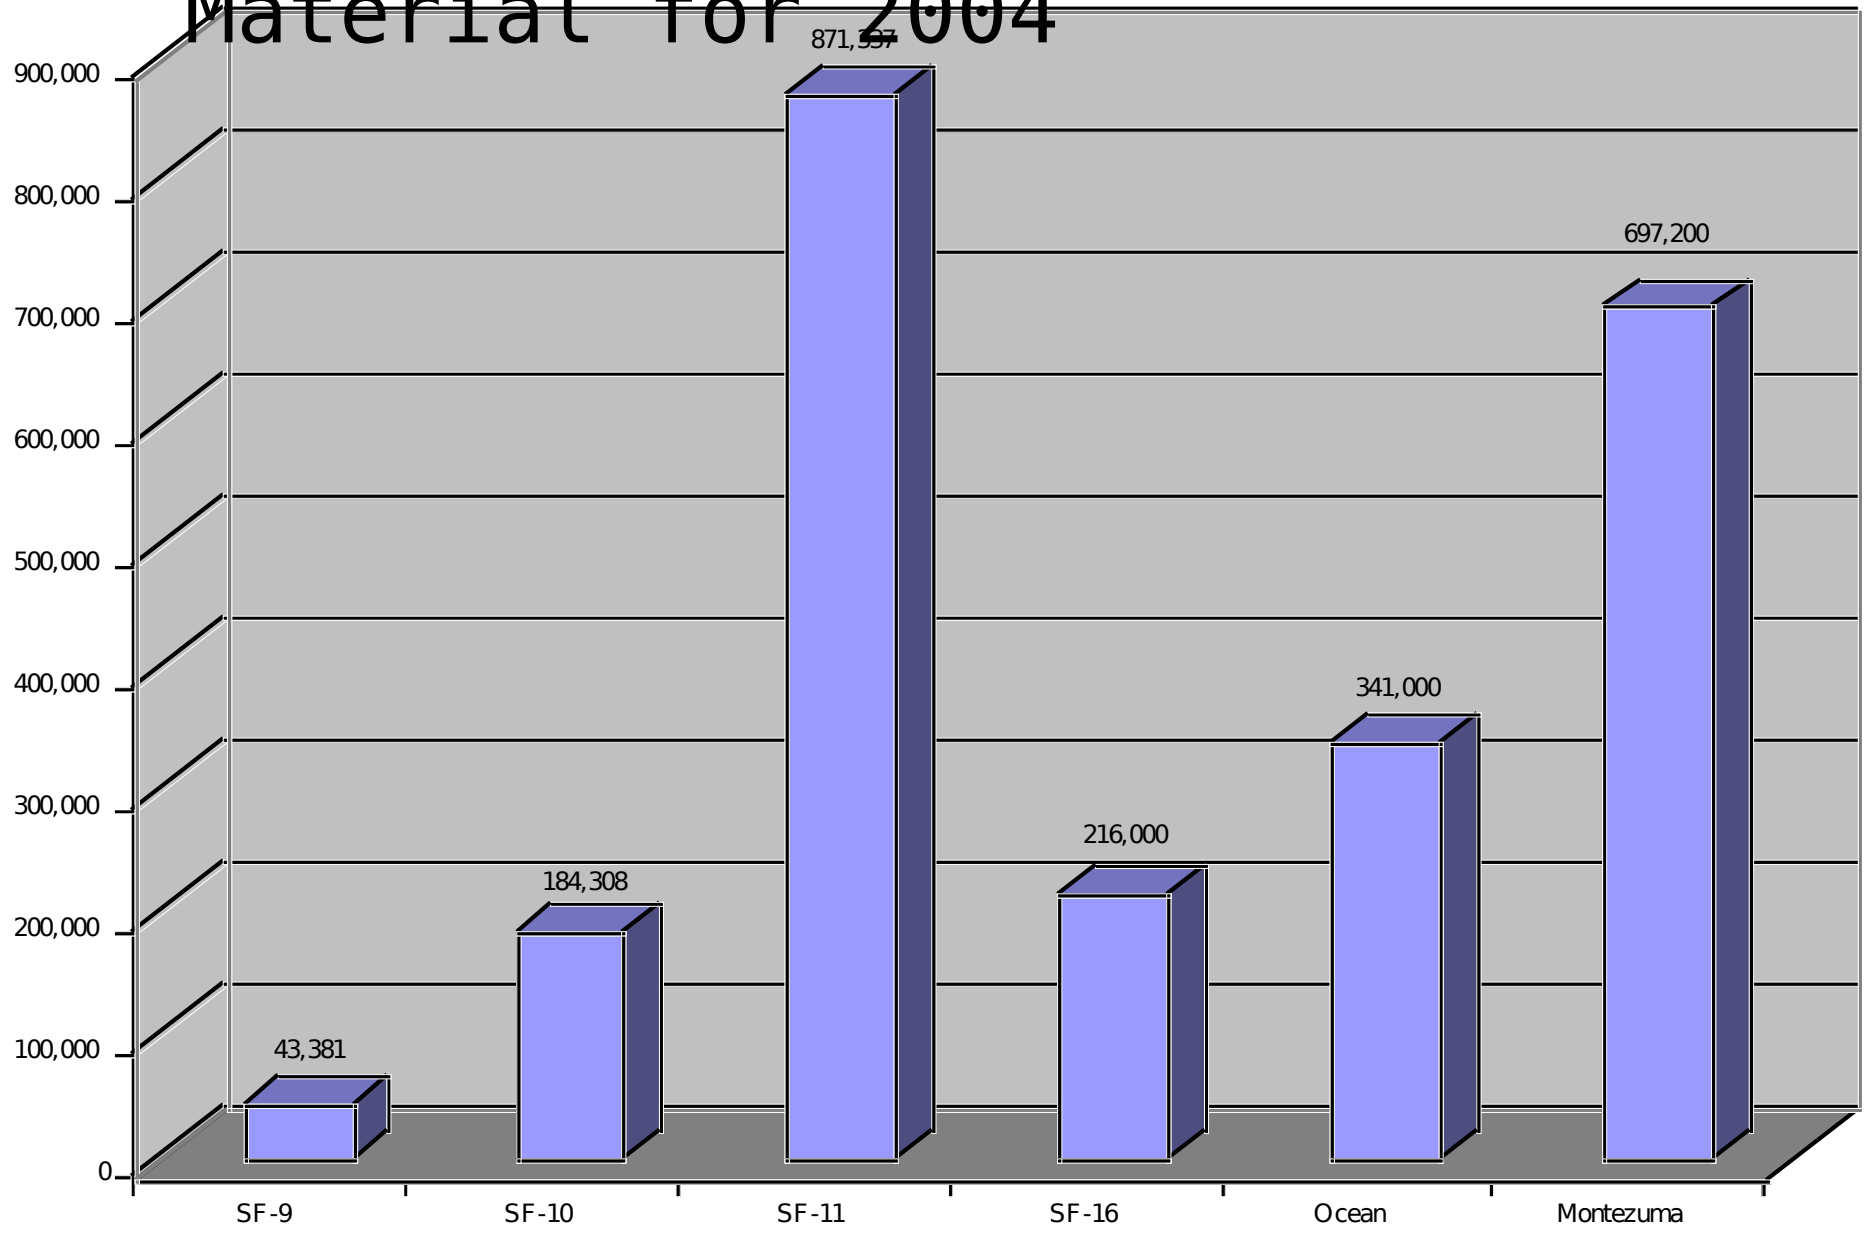
Actual Dredging Has Been Decreasing Overall



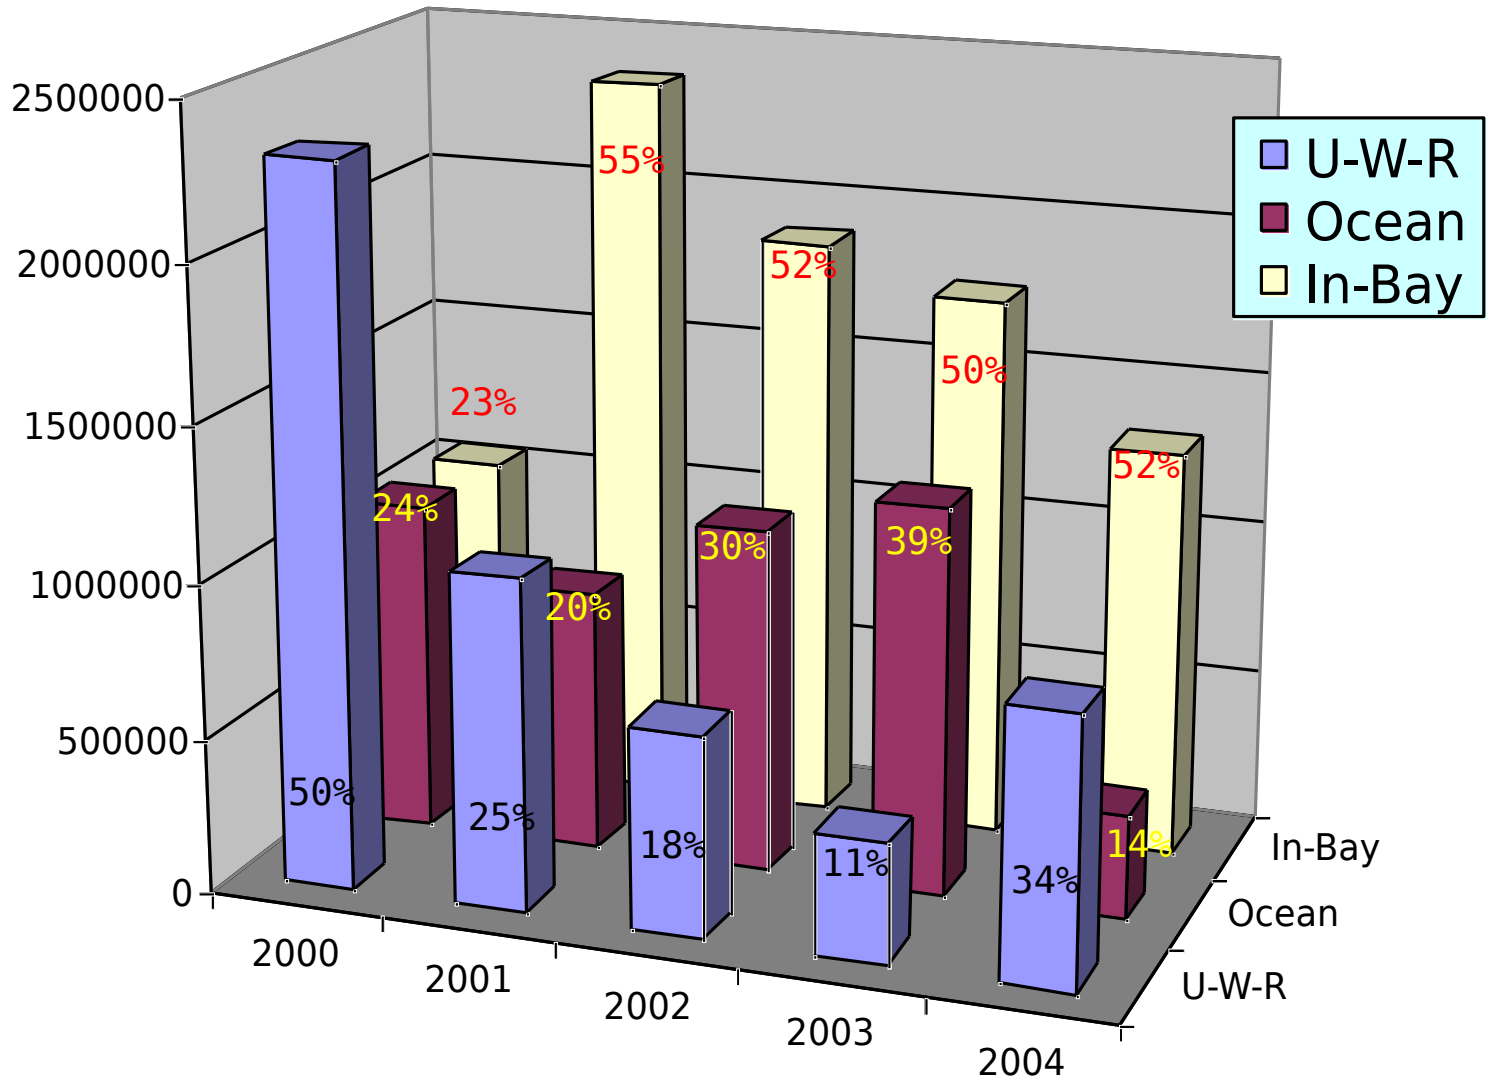
- "Bin

Suitability Determinations for 2004

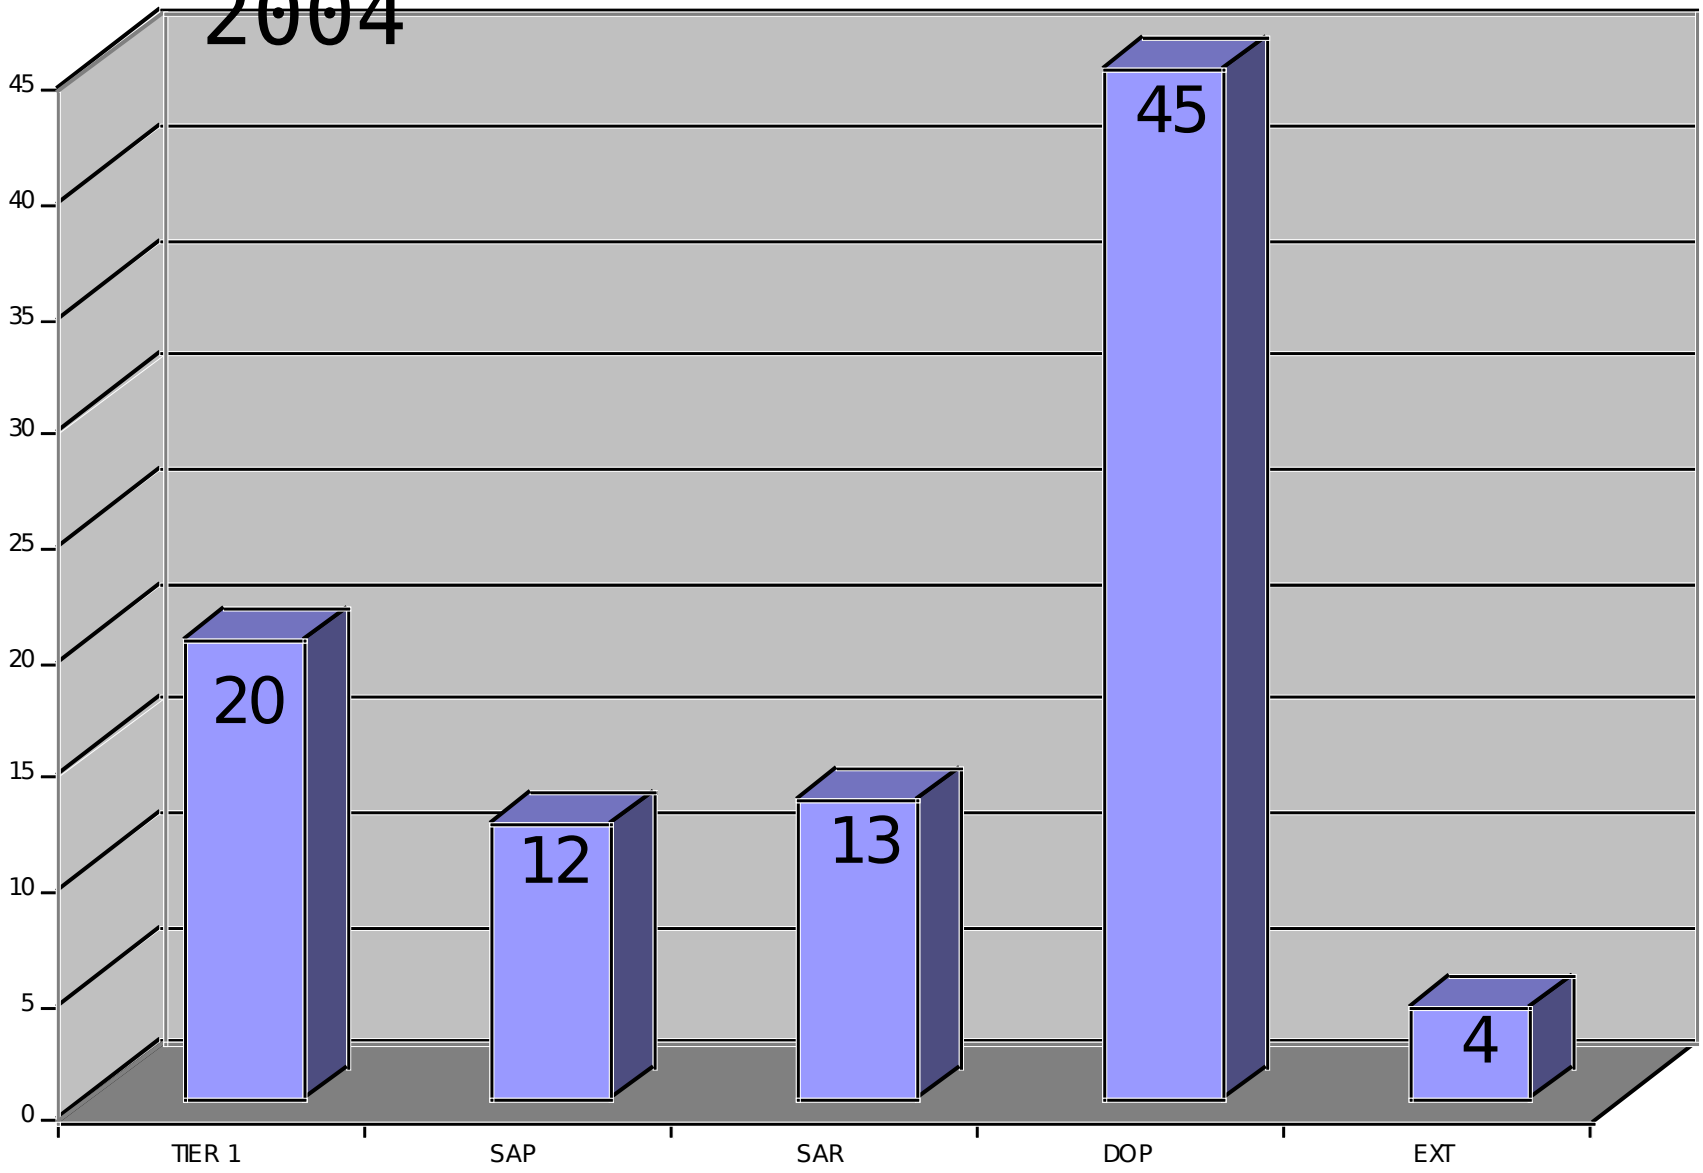
Distribution of Dredged Material for 2004

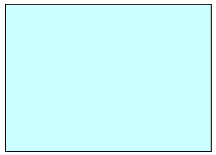


2000-2004 Totals By Environment



DMMO Correspondence for 2004





Environmental Windows Update

Workgroups Meeting Regularly

- Long Term Solutions - 7/19/05
- Short Term Solutions - 6/30/05
- Science and Data Gaps - 6/15/05
- Herring - TBD

2004 Accomplishments

- Established a Process Identifying and Funding Studies
- Identified Data Gaps and Proposed Areas for Study
- Completed Two Plume Studies of a Dredge and Knockdown Event
- Held a Herring Workshop
- Completed a Review of Existing Studies on Effects of Sedimentation on Herring Eggs

Projects Funded for 2005

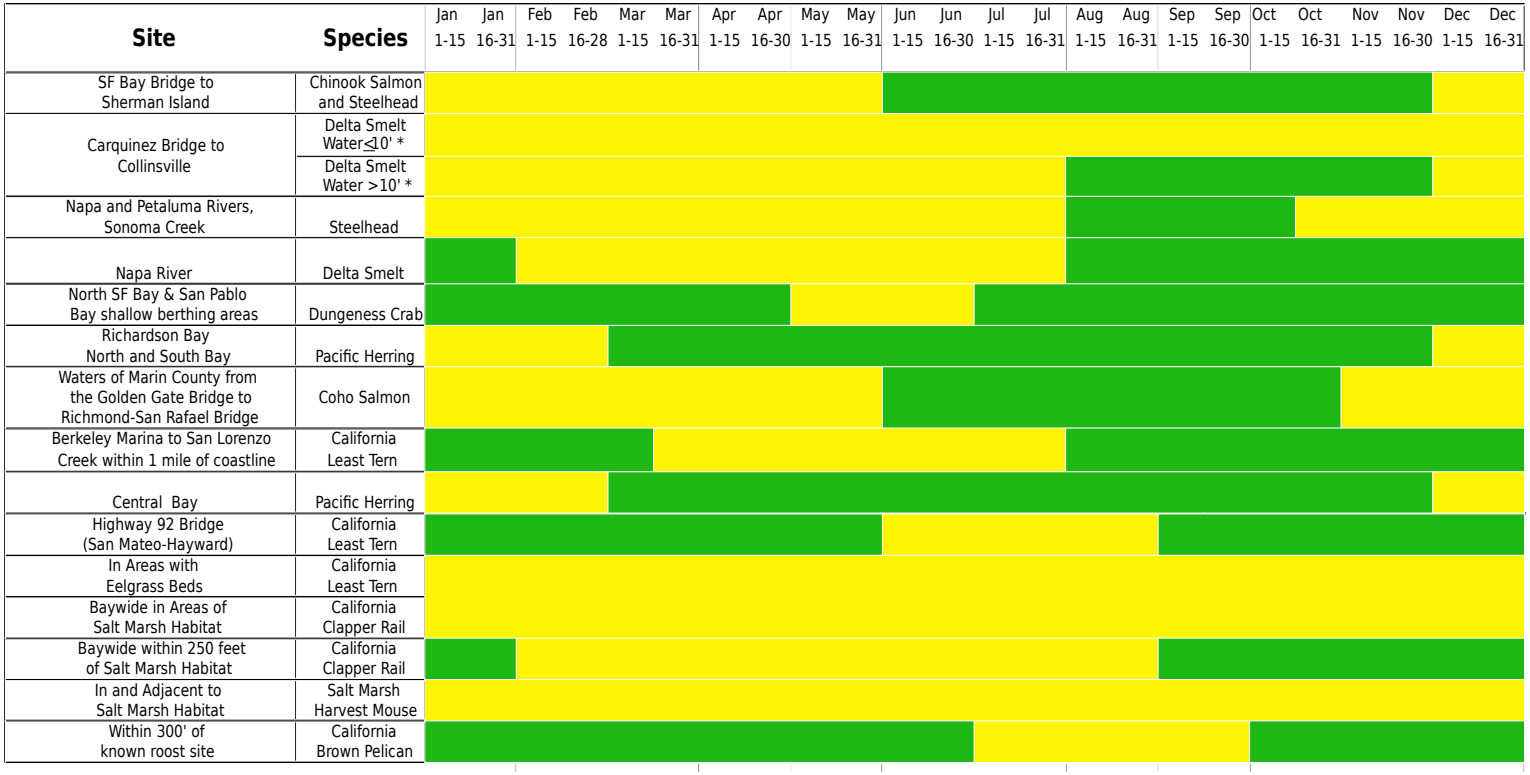
Through the Corps LTMS Funding

- Research on the Effects of Sedimentation on Herring Eggs Data Analysis and Report for Redwood City Knockdown Study
- Equipment Purchase for Pilot Salmon Distribution Study
- Permit Condition Coordination
- Partial Funding of DMMO Database

$290,000

Refined Work Windows

USFWS Update



For more detailed information, see Appendix F of the LTMS Management Plan or the LTMS EIR/EIS.
* Depths are represented in MLLW, and are project depth, not including over dredge allowance
This chart is for operations and maintenance dredging of existing navigational facilities. Other species may be affected by work in other areas.